Part I. Reading Comprehension (Questions 1–5)

The School Garden

One Tuesday morning, the students of Grade Four noticed that their school garden was becoming dry and untidy. Many flowers were dying, and the ground was covered with dry leaves. Their teacher, Ms. Amina, suggested that they work together to make the garden beautiful again. The students were excited and agreed to help during their free time.

The next day, the students brought small gardening tools from home. Some students removed the dry leaves, while others watered the plants and pulled out the weeds. A boy named Ibrahim wanted to finish his work quickly, so he tried to do everything by himself. However, he soon became tired and could not complete his tasks.

His friend, Yusuf, noticed that Ibrahim was struggling and offered to help him. Together, they finished the work much faster. Ibrahim realized that working with others made difficult tasks easier. He thanked Yusuf and decided to help his classmates with their tasks too.

After three days of hard work, the garden looked clean and beautiful. The flowers were watered, and the paths were free of dry leaves. Ms. Amina praised the students for their effort and teamwork. She reminded them that when people work together and help one another, they can achieve great things.

The students felt happy and promised to take care of their garden regularly.
